dedication to dan

tragedy's full impact was felt by the senior class, the school, and the community when dan pashkewich was seriously injured during a football practice october 22, 1969.

until then, dan — athlete, classmate, leader, and scholar — had been actively involved in all areas of admiral king's daily routine. his merits and hard work received compensation with his being elected to membership in national honor society and with his selection to a position on the all-buckeye conference team. dan's values as a friend and classmate resulted in area-wide efforts — efforts which raised money and resulted in the donation of time to therapy sessions.

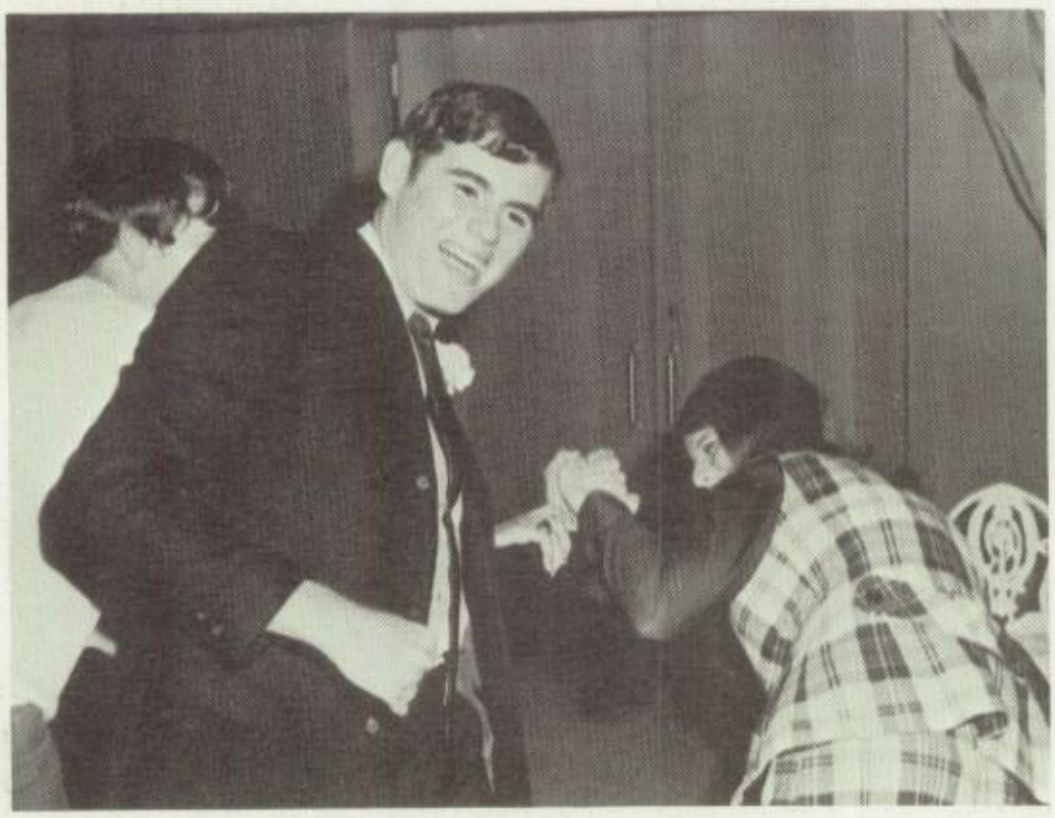
dan actively participating in senior campaigns.



dan relaxing and enjoying himself.

when the curtain rose on the night of november 14, the admiral king stage was transformed into a small new england town as the concert choir presented roger's and hammerstein's "carousel."

it is the story of billy bigelow (jim vale), a barker for a carousel on the coast, and julie jordan (mary jo gyorfi), a girl he meets on the carousel.

billy and julie are married, but their marriage is not a happy one because billy is out of work.

a clambake is planned and julie's friend, carrie pipperidge (barb murawski), announces she is going to be married to enoch snow (dave pijor). when julie tells billy, who is jobless and penniless, and his friend, jigger craigin (lou telloni), plot to rob david bascombe (lou vida), the owner of a cotton mill. the plot backfires, jigger escapes, and billy dies. billy is taken "up there" by a heavenly friend (dave cocuzzi) and discovers that for each minute that passes in heaven one year passes on earth. he is given a chance by the starkeeper (jeff stone) to visit the earth once again and discovers that his 15-year-old daughter, louise (mary lyon), is rejected by everyone. she feels she has no chance for success because her father was no-good. at her graduation, the speaker tells the class members that they must not depend on the success or failure of their fathers, but they must attempt to succeed by themselves. billy, who is there in spirit, tells louise to listen. the story ends with louise and julie both aware of billy's presence, while the choir sings, "you'll never walk alone."

alma mater

hail to our colors, gold and blue;
hail to our alma mater true;
throughout the years we shall stand by
with pride we'll keep your standards high.
the values we established here will make our mem'ries ever dear.

oh, admiral king, so strong and bold,
our endless love can ne'er be told.
the light that you created here will be a beacon through each year and bring us always home to sing
the glory of our admiral king.

tune: "navy hymn" lyrics: marjean ross
